Colonels and Browns Break Even

Colonels and Browns Break Even.
LOUISVILLE, Sept. 18.—The Colonels and St. Louis Browns played two games to-day and broke even. The Browns won the first game, Breitenstein pitching great ball. The Colonels had a walkover in the second, knocking Kissinger's curves all over the lot. Manager McCloskey tried Burkett and Morrison, late of the Southern league, in the second game, and the latter made a very good impression. Darkness stopped the second game at the end of the seventh. At the afternoon session of the sovereign grand lodge amendments to the constitution, introduced at last year's session, came up for final action. The first amendment was the addition of another section of article 10, providing that no saloon-keepers, har-tenders or professional gambiers shall be eligible to membership in the order. A vote was taken amid the utmost confusion and the amendment passed by a vote of 167 to 32, the requisite vote being 185.

When this had been done, the hour was so late that the second important amendment was laid over until te-morrow.

Before adjournment the sovereign grand lodge voted to give the grand decoration of chivalry to about twenty persons from Pennsylvania and to J. J. Gorgensen, past grand commander of the state of Wisconsin.
